

The jubilee of IM&CS

In 2004 the Institute of Mathematics and Computer Science of the Academy of Sciences of Moldova will celebrate its 40 anniversary.

The second number of the following volume (12th) of the Computer Science Journal of Moldova and the conference, which will take place in August, 2004, will be devoted to this event.

We invite our authors to take part in the jubilee actions, the details about which will be presented on the Institute site www.math.md.
